Mobley Joins Habitat for Humanity

Habitat for Humanity is pleased to announce Ryan Mobley has joined the staff as Volunteer Manager. Mobley will be responsible for recruiting, training and coordinating Habitat's thousands of volunteers that support the building of affordable housing.

"I am looking forward to bringing together volunteers, churches, businesses and community organizations to build decent and affordable housing for people in need," said Mobley. "Together we can build hope for families in Sangamon County."

Mobley previously served as the founding and lead pastor of Delta Church in Springfield, IL and other pastoral positions in the Chicago area and in Lansing, MI prior to moving to Springfield in 2006.

Mobley has also served on the Community Service Committee for the Young Springfield Professionals Network (YSPN), graduated from The Chamber's Leadership Springfield program and was named a Springfield Business Journal Forty Under 40 in 2009. He and his wife, Dawn, have been married for 14 years and reside in Springfield with their five children.

Habitat for Humanity helps families and individuals break the cycle of poverty and build long-term financial security. Habitat for Humanity is currently in the process of building Habitat house #83 in Sangamon County.
